Huntington, WV (HNN) -- The Davidson Brothers Band from Clarksburg, WV entertained at the Heiner's Bakery Pullman Square Concert Series on Thursday evening, Aug. 23 with their style of country music that intertwined rock.

The band -- not well known in the Tri-State -- was a big hit at Pullman Square with their style something like a Lynard Skynard or a Carl Perkins. Some observers thought the Davidson Brothers was one of the best they had seen and predicted they could be on their way to a top forty in about four years.

The crowd at Pullman Square was fair for a hot August day. The audience that attended certainly appreciated the music of the Davidson Brothers Band.
