

September 8, 2007

A Little Bit Country, a Little Bit Funky...a Lot of Rock-n-Roll
Lonestar Tears it Up in Free Pre-Game Concert

Thousands of fans of West Virginia, Marshall and Lonestar jammed, (literally,) together on Third Ave. in front of Pullman Square Friday night. A free concert proved we all can "just get along." With the game nigh, worries and rumors had mounted, but they didn't matter this night. Police reported a hassle-free good time was had by all. Except for you. If you weren't there, that is. But, no worries, we've got a taste of the evening for you.

Producer Tony Seaton waded into the partying throngs and has the scene on tape.

Please click a picture to watch.