

July 5, 2007

Long Fireworks Show Over Pullman Square Celebrates July Fourth

By Chris Spencer
Huntington News Network Photographer

Huntington, WV (HNN) - People came to Pullman Square and watched a long fireworks show to celebrate July 4th, as the Third Annual 'Dawg Dazzle' took place.

Entertainment was provided by the Dawg's Jamboree. The entertainment was stopped by rain and lightning about 7:30 PM. Most took shelter under buildings, tents and around the Pullman Square stair case.

Once the rain stopped the entertainment started again and more people began to come to Pullman Square. Another brief rain came about 9:30 PM, but the Christ Temple Choir continued to perform from under the pavilion.

Again the rain let up and Huntington was treated to one of the longest and best fireworks shows they have ever had. Everyone there seemed to enjoy the fireworks show.