

June 22, 2007

Big Planet Soul Draws Large Crowd at Pullman Square

By Chris Spencer

Huntington News Network Photographer

Huntington, WV (HNN) -- The Heiner's Summer Concert Series continued the tradition at Pullman Square on Thursday evening, June 21, 2007 with Big Planet Soul entertaining on the longest day for light of the year and officially marking the first day of summer

A large crowd packed Pullman Square to see this band. The fine music had the people applauding and dancing to the beat. A diverse audience from toddlers on up came out to enjoy the music, dance, see their friends and celebrate the first day of summer.

Pullman Square was rocking with Big Planet Soul. A good crowd of people were visiting the newly opened Benny's Cheesesteak restaurant.

Marshall new head basketball Coach Donnie Jones and his family were enjoying the concert and meeting a lot of people. When introduced to the large audience they gave Coach Jones a standing ovation.