Huntington, WV (HNN) -- The Subway Beach Band from Morgantown entertained at the Heiner's Bread Pullman Square Concert Series on Thursday night, Aug. 2, 2007 for a large crowd.

With no rain this week the crowds came out and enjoyed the Subway Beach Band playing songs from the oldies era. Some were dancing to the music from the young to the more experienced. A diverse crowd was there.

Members of the band interacted with the audience talking, singing and playing going through the crowd.
